A community network of companies and a 'people-first' ethos, collaborating and working together with fresh new ideas

ABOUT MESA

MESA (Meetings & Events Support Association) is a new association based on the previous membership activities of MDI (Meeting Design Institute). Behind the member companies are like-minded people in the industry who connect and share their ideas and challenges, in a trustworthy network.

Our aim is to provide a close unit for suppliers in the meetings and events industry to network, support and learn from each other.

We want to meet regularly, gathering for personal and professional development, for teams and leaders, to increase knowledge, innovation, and success.

- C Community of members collaborating and sharing
- E Education for leaders and teams is core
- O Opportunities to network with colleagues and for new business

OUR VISION / PURPOSE

"To grow a close-knit community where members can face challenges together in an ever-changing events industry"

WE WANT TO:

- Create business opportunities and build personal relationships within the community
- Reach new audiences and connections with meeting planners
- Share industry knowledge through surveys and network influencers
- Provide support from within the community to energise, champion each other and empathise for members' needs

OUR CORE VALUES

We are an open and approachable group of entrepreneurs and their teams, sharing the same values:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Guidance: | We provide help, support, and advice to each other |
| Collaboration: | We build close connections, collaborating on different projects |
| Respect: | We show consideration to each other |
| Innovation: | We love events and innovation within our industry |
| Networking: | We increase our network with introductions for each other |

OUR MEMBERS

Members are small to medium sized companies (up to 100 employees) including entertainment, consulting, moderation, art, music, AV, and technology providers. MESA works with planners, destinations, hotels, PCO's and venues but they are not qualified as members.

All Members will be provided with:

A MESA Code of Conduct and a MESA Membership Certificate

Our members receive:

- Connections to other suppliers in the MESA network and ability to reach out to them directly via our MESA intranet platform
- Support within the community for new projects, ideas, and developments
- Opportunity to promote content (blogs, case studies, white papers, and news), events, and special interest groups in the platform
- Inclusion in the online Supplier Guide on the platform
- Promotion at industry tradeshows as part of the MESA membership and opportunity to display information at the MESA showcase stand
- Speaking opportunities at MESA education and campfires
- Personal 'onboarding' to discuss your membership and benefits
- Invitation to MESA annual general member meetings (online and at tradeshows)

"The last few months have been particularly challenging for our industry. We have all been forced to reinvent ourselves, and to innovate. MESA provides a collaborative environment where people from different backgrounds meet to combine their expertise and learn from each other, offering a common culture for its members as being part of a family unit, trusting each other."
