

Clare Forestier

'making business events feel human'

Emcee & Presentation Trainer

What Clare Brings to Your Event

Clare uses warmth, humour, and a natural ability to connect to make even the most serious conference feel human.

She helps people feel seen, included and comfortable enough to get involved, turning a room full of delegates into a community ready to bring an event's ambition to life.

Bringing the Magic out of the Agenda

Making Content Connect:

Clare supports nervous or overly technical speakers and turns dense talks into conversations that engage the whole audience.

Networking With Spark:

She brings energy to networking with simple, grown-up activities and guided sessions that make connecting easy and meaningful.

Panels & Discussions That Deliver:

Clare leads panels that flow naturally, involve the audience, and bring out the best in every contributor.

Extending Keynote Impact:

She adds value and continuity by hosting follow-up conversations or workshops that build on keynote themes.

Why It Matters

Organisers pour huge effort into designing events. Clare makes sure that effort pays off in the room so the event flows, speakers shine, sponsors benefit, and delegates leave feeling part of something memorable.

What Others Say

“ Clare has an unparalleled ability to manage the many moving parts of a conference while keeping the energy high and the audience engaged. ”

“ She makes a personal connection with delegates, and our attendees repeatedly mentioned how welcome and involved they felt. ”

“ Clare worked proactively with us, injecting humour, handling last-minute changes with ease, and bringing real charisma to the stage. ”

Clare In a Box!

Clare is an emcee and moderator who makes events feel joined-up, lively, and inclusive. She helps speakers connect with their audience, reshapes heavy talks into entertaining conversations, runs panels that stand out, adds spark to networking, keeps events smooth under pressure, and always puts the delegate experience first.
