

MESA brings members together for their fifth year at The Meetings Show 2026

MESA, the Meetings & Events Support Association, is celebrating its return to The Meetings Show at London ExCel. This marks the fifth time that the association has attended and exhibited.

Members have come together to support each other at what many call the UK's most preferred event industry trade show.

This co-operation between members is demonstrated by ACS audiovisual solutions and IML Logistik (Karma Knoll), who are working together to provide the logistics for the association.

Sandie McCoubrey, director of MESA, commented on the show and the MESA community...

"As MESA returns to The Meetings Show in London for our fifth year, we're excited to be joined by nine MESA member companies showcasing the strength and innovation of our community.

Jack Marczewski, Portfolio Event Director, has been a great supporter of MESA over the years, and we truly value the partnership we've built with TMS. We're looking forward to another successful event and reconnecting with industry colleagues."

MESA members who will be exhibiting at The Meetings Show 2026 include...

- Conference Compass

Ali Taghavi, Co-Founder of MergeLabs, recently joined MESA and commented on his experience of becoming a member...

"As a pre-revenue startup, joining MESA felt at first like taking a risk. But then I got to experience the incredible support, networking opportunities, and everybody's generous willingness to share what they've learned. We've just come back from a stand share with MESA at an industry event and look forwards to now joining MESA at TMS in London as a new opportunity for us".

MESA brings together innovative, like-minded suppliers who are all working to move meetings and events forward. Exhibiting alongside that community means every conversation at the stand carries real depth where visitors find a group of people who understand their world."

Anup Mohan, CEO and Co-Founder of Premagic, spoke of the immense value of being a MESA member and exhibiting at The Meetings Show...

"Exhibiting at The Meetings Show is always a calendar highlight, but being part of the MESA pavilion completely changes the game. Instead of feeling like a stand-alone booth in a massive hall, you're positioned right in the heart of a vibrant, dedicated innovation hub. Because TMS pre-qualifies their hosted buyers so rigorously, the foot traffic coming through the MESA area isn't just looking for casual conversations; they are corporate planners and event agency leaders specifically seeking forward-thinking tech solutions. The collective energy of the pavilion naturally draws people in, leading to back-to-back, high-value conversations. You get the power and infrastructure of a collective pavilion combined with incredibly focused, face-to-face appointments. TMS delivers the right crowd, and MESA ensures you stand out to them."

MESA is encouraging attendees at The Meetings Show to join them on stand F81 and learn more about their exhibitors, members and the association.
